

Edith Anderson Olliff, CPA, MBA
6846 Westside Road
Statesboro, Georgia 30458
eolliff@georgiasouthern.edu

Education:

MBA, Georgia Southern University, 1988
BBA - Accounting, Stetson University, 1986

Work Experience:

Accounting Instructor – Georgia Southern University - 1999 - present

Responsibilities include teaching a minimum of 8 classes per academic year. Classes taught include Principles of Financial Accounting, Principles of Managerial Accounting, Survey of Accounting and Introduction to Business. I also serve on various School of Accountancy committees. In addition, I perform accounting work for several private clients including inventory management, general ledger maintenance, payroll preparation and reporting, utility billing, financial statement preparation and income tax return preparation.

Self - employed accountant - 1997 - 1999

Performed financial audits for various governmental clients including the Town of Brooklet and the Statesboro-Bulloch County Parks and Recreation Department.

Finance Director - City of Statesboro - 1994 - 1997

Responsibilities included overall maintenance of the City's financial records and supervision of accounts payable, utility billing, payroll, budgeting, fixed assets records maintenance, debt management and cash management. Assisted the external auditors with the annual audit and city staff with annual budget preparation and maintenance.

Internal Auditor - City of Statesboro - 1992- 1994

Assisted City Clerk with preparation and maintenance of monthly budget/financial statements. Assisted external auditors with the annual audit of the financial statements.

Staff accountant - Collins and Denmark, CPA's - 1990 - 1992

Primary responsibility was the audit of various governmental entities. Prepared monthly financial statements and tax returns for clients.

Staff accountant - Deloitte, Haskins and Sells - 1988 - 1990

Assisted with financial audits.

Community Activities:

Member - Statesboro Service League - 1997 - present
Board Member - Friends of the Statesboro Regional Library - 2005